

Nothing is worth more than this day. Johann Wolfgang von Goethe

Join us for an evening with Goethe

THU, APR 20 - 7:00 pm

Dallas Goethe Center in partnership with the Ackermann Center for Holocaust Studies

In the English-speaking world Goethe is one of the most familiar names but least read poets in the canon of the world's greatest writers. He is notoriously hard to translate: if his music is missing, his magic is too, and the verbal and emotional magic must not be sacrificed to the music.

Dr. Zsuzsanna Ozsvath and Dr. Frederick Turner, veteran prizewinning translators, have created an anthology of Goethe's lyrics that attempts to bring his music and his magic together into a performable script in elegant modern English.

The Dallas Goethe Center and the Ackermann Center for Holocaust Studies at UTD will be hosting this event. After the recitation there will be an opportunity for questions and discussions, followed by a networking reception.

Registration: To register please contact Cindy Seton-Rogers at cmc063000@utdallas.edu

Location: The Ackerman Center for Holocaust Studies at the University of Texas